Presentation, Reading & Debating on Conservation, Legal Pluralism & Indigeneity:

The Rights-based Approach
Indigeneity as a Legal Concept in the African Context

Presentation, Reading & Debating
Prof. Werner Zips
Dept. of Social & Cultural Anthropology, University of Vienna
http://www.univie.ac.at/ksa/html/inh/pers/wiss/zips.htm

Thursday, 03. October 2013
Y-25-L40

11:00 – 12:30:
Presentation by Werner Zips on his recent research in the context of Indigeneity, Conservation and Legal Pluralism in Africa.
Discussant: Timothy Raeymaekers

Reading & Debating
13:30 – 14:30:
Presentation by Jennifer Bartmess (PGG)

15:00 – 16:30: Discussion with Werner Zips about the following texts:
- Being Indigenous in Africa" (Zips-Mairitsch 2013) and
- "The Return of the Outlaws" (Zips 2013) from the book "Lost Lands? (Land)Rights of the San in Botswana and the Legal Concept of Indigeneity in Africa" (Manuela Zips-Mairitsch; Lit / IWGIA, 2013)

moderator: Timothy Raeymaekers